

that it is you she loves."

But ~~she~~ doesn't -- she clings to her husband in desperation.

At dawn, the explorer brings them the child with a note from the aunt saying she was the kidnaper and did it to test their love. And again the wife turns to her husband. So the explorer realizes that it was a mistake after all, at least so far as the girl was concerned and leaves them to return to where the aunt, still beautifull, awaits him, hoping against hope that he may one day learn that he loves the one woman who loves him and has always done so.
